Interns (m/f/d) in Global Private Debt / Fixed Income (Three Positions), Allianz Investment Management SE, Munich

Job Purpose/Role

Our asset class is growing, and so is our team. The Private Debt and Opportunities team designs and steers the Alternative Debt portfolio for the Allianz Group. Private Debt is one of the fastest moving asset classes of the last decade, and we are looking for support to source, analyze and implement the highest quality investment opportunities across Senior, Mezzanine and Distressed Credit strategies, among others such as Infrastructure and Real Estate Debt.

Being part of the Investment Strategy team of AIM, you will contribute to achieving superior investment results for our clients over the long-run. You will be working everyday on data-driven investment analysis supported by strong written and verbal communication skills, and you will contribute to making a measurable impact on the Allianz Group's Private Debt and Fixed Income strategies. This is an exciting opportunity to become part of an investment team managing a truly global portfolio with plenty of opportunities to learn and develop.

Key Responsibilities

- Contribute to complex and large volume private debt investment proposals (in collaboration with other investment professionals) through qualitative and quantitative investment analysis
- Perform market analysis and research on a variety of countries and regions (developed as well as emerging markets)
- Prepare for, participate, and take minutes in meetings with asset managers
- Contribute to data analytics, performance measurement and ongoing portfolio management

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

Requirements:

- You must be registered as a student for the entire duration of the work term
- You have completed your undergraduate studies in business administration, economics, or mathematics with solid credentials and are current registered in a master's program
- You are fully fluent in English. German is a plus. Where available, please also provide certificates demonstrating your English proficiency level (e.g. IELTS, TOEFL, GRE or GMAT score sheets)
- Please clearly indicate in your cover letter your availability (start and end dates).

Qualifications:

- We are looking for people who take initiative and can work independently within an international and dynamic environment
- You have an inquisitive mind and you learn quickly
- You are interested in capital markets and investments. Fixed income know-how is a plus
- You have strong analytical skills and pay attention to details. You are experienced in using Microsoft Office, preferably with knowledge of database and data analytics tools including VBA
- Previous work experience in the financial industry is a plus

Additional Information

You must be registered as student for the entire duration of the internship.

Job start: Jan or Feb 2020 / full-time

Duration: at least 4 months and preferably 6 months
